Translation

Doctor: Hello? Hello!

Investigator: Hello, Doctor!

Doctor: Hello!

Investigator: Good evening, Doctor! Is this the Qinghai Provincial People's Hospital?

Doctor: Uh, yes. Who are you looking for?

Investigator: Doctor, here's my situation. Having an urgent matter, I'm sorry to call you at this late hour. I'd like to ask you something. My brother is only 39 years old. Diagnosed with late stage cirrhosis, he needs a liver transplant. So I think I should bring all his medical records for you to review, right?

Doctor: Yes, any time after the holiday, after New Year's Day.

Investigator: Ah, which doctor should I come to look for directly? Which doctor should I look for?

Doctor: Hey, you just come to our center to look for our director, who is mainly responsible for the liver transplantation.

Investigator: Uh, the director, (Doctor: right!) What is the name of the director?

Doctor: You just need to come, only one director here. It's very easy to find him.

Investigator: What's the surname? What is the director's surname?

Doctor: It's Guo. Uh, your voice doesn't sound clear. Please dial in once again, it is not very clear!

.....

Doctor: Hello?

Investigator: Can you hear me now? Doctor!

Doctor: Hey!

Investigator: Doctor, can you hear me clearly now?

Doctor: Ah, now it is a little better than before. As I just said, you can bring all his materials after the holiday, just come to our general surgery center!

Investigator: Ah, General Surgery Center will do.

Doctor: General Surgery Center.

Investigator: Look for that Director Guo, right?

Doctor: Yes, yes, where are you from?

Investigator: I, I am, I am with my brother and we are doing business here. He was suddenly diagnosed with that cirrhosis. He is only 39 years old. Our whole family is very anxious.

Doctor: First of all, you first bring his file here. First we need to take a look at his file and figure out what needs to be prepared, how to get an organ, then we can tell you...then we can arrange a bed for him here at our hospital.

Investigator: Yes, because we do not have medical insurance. I have to prepare the cash, so I need to prepare these things for him. Then, for example, even if he comes, he can have a bed available and get it done. So, when he's admitted into your hospital...

Doctor: If he is here for a liver transplant, we will give him the priority to get everything arranged for him.

Investigator: Ah, he'll be given the priority to get it arranged, that is great!

Doctor: Right!

Investigator: So, in the fastest case...

Doctor: Listen. Here's the simplest...the simplest way is that you bring all his files after the holiday, and I will give you a consultation.

Investigator: Yes.

Doctor: Alright, you have...if we keep talking like this, I can't tell you anything further, before you bring over all his test results for me to take a look.

Investigator: Ah, so do you do many cases a year, with good experiences?

Doctor: We still have a gap if compared with those hospitals in Beijing, Shanghai or Guangzhou, honestly speaking. I am sorry. I will need you to come over for a consultation face to face. Right now, I have no time to talk to you anymore!

Investigator: Ah, that's fine.

Doctor: (Hung up the phone.)
