If you can't be transformed within one year in detention, you have to stay for two years and if you can't be transformed then, you have to stay for three years. If you can't be transformed in three years, we will detain you for ten years. There are only 2 million Falun Gong members and over one hundred thousand obstinate ones in China, but China has 1.2 billion people. If these Falun Gong members are not transformed, having them beaten down and executed is no big deal, just a small number compared to the 1.2 billion people, and it won't have any effect on the Communist regime's rule even if we killed all these 2 million members...., we must beat you obstinate ones heavily, even to death so that you can't go to Beijing to 'self immolate'."
