Investigation Recording 21

Subject of Investigation: Zhou Yongkang, then Member of the Politburo Standing Committee and head of the Central Political and Legal Affairs Commission

Date: May 29, 2008

(Recording: MP3)

On May 29, 2008, a WOIPFG investigator pretending to be “Li Chuncheng, Sichuan Provincial Communist Party Committee Secretary” carried out a phone conversation with Zhou Yongkang.

It is said that a large number of Falun Gong practitioners, who had been selected as organ donors, were being jailed in some military compounds in Sichuan and Chongqing at that time. Li Chuncheng, Sichuan’s communist party chief, oversaw the handling of the 2008 Sichuan earthquake. In the following conversation between the WOIPFG investigator and Zhou Yongkang, Zhou did not deny that some Falun Gong practitioners were being detained in the compounds but stressed that the matter could only be discussed through the red line, which is the communist party government’s confidential phone line.

Zhou Yongkang: Ah?

Investigator: This is Li Chuncheng, Sichuan Provincial Communist Party Committee Secretary.

Zhou Yongkang: From Chengdu?

Zhou Yongkang: I can’t recognize your dialect. You’re tired?

Investigator: Tired, yes. I have one thing to report to you.

Zhou Yongkang: Oh.

Investigator: Just after the aftershocks from the earthquake, and then something happened.

Zhou Yongkang: Oh.

Investigator: It is that in our region, some places, where a large number of Falun Gong practitioners are being held, have been damaged. And some of them escaped. What should we do?

Zhou Yongkang: Oh?

Investigator: What do you think we should do now?

Zhou Yongkang: How many people? From the labor camps or the re-education and transformation venues?

Investigator: No. It is those, who are imprisoned in our military warehouses and air-raid shelters.

Zhou Yongkang: How many people?

Investigator: About 20.

Zhou Yongkang: Those areas controlled by the judicial system? The judicial bureau?

Investigator: No, it was supposed to be... I have to find out who was directly involved. That's what has been reported to me.

Zhou Yongkang: Are you the Chengdu Municipal Communist Party Committee Secretary in Sichuan?

Investigator: What do you think we should do?

Zhou Yongkang: Use the red line to call me. Use the red line (confidential phone line) to call me. I... I'm not too sure who you are. I will ask them.

Investigator: But...

Zhou Yongkang: I will ask related departments for further information, okay?

Investigator: We are in a hurry, so we need to take actions soon.

Zhou Yongkang: You... you... you... I can't tell who you are. I need to find out more about the situation, okay?
