Translation

Nurse: Transplant Center.

Investigator: Hello. How are you?

Nurse: Hello?

Investigator: Hello. How are you? Is this the PLA No. 161 Hospital?

Nurse: Yes.

Investigator: Uh. Here's my (situation). My husband, he urgently needs a kidney transplant. I'd like to consult about it. Is there a doctor there?

Nurse: Ah, for that, you can just call back tomorrow during the day. Okay?

Investigator: Which number shall I call then?

Nurse: You can just call this number. The phone number for the doctors' office is also okay.

Investigator: Okay. Can you tell me the phone number for the Transplant Office?

Nurse: The phone number for the kidney transplant inpatient service is 5066 0464.

Investigator: 5066 0464?

Nurse: Right, right, right.

Investigator: It's 50660464, right? Which doctor shall I look for?

Nurse: You call that number tomorrow to ask, okay?

Investigator: Okay. All right. Your place is for kidney transplants, right?

Nurse: Right.

Investigator: Okay. That's good. By the way, is there a vacant bed if (patient) is transferred here? Is there a shortage of beds?

Nurse: About that, you need to contact the doctor. Talk about that after you get in touch with a doctor.

Investigator: Oh. That means a bed cannot be guaranteed until the doctor is contacted, right?

Nurse: Yes. Yes. Yes.

Nurse: If you ask me, as a nurse, I definitely don't know! Those things are taken care of by the leaders. Our staff who do those things all directly contact the leaders. We are not sure about that, either.

Investigator: Oh. I thought you nurses have seen a lot.

Nurse: Oh, we've seen a lot. However, those things are dealt with by the leaders in the center, not by us. We just do the nurse part, taking care of the patients here. You got that?

Investigator: Oh, I see.

Nurse: Because I am the only person on duty here right now, I am now a bit busy.

Investigator: Oh, I'm really sorry about that.

Nurse: Okay. I will hang up first now. It's time to do the skin test for a patient here.

Investigator: Oh. Thank you. Thank you.

Nurse: Uh, okay.

Investigator: Thanks. Bye.
