Translation

Investigator: Hello, hi! Is Doctor Zhang available? Hello?

Dr. Zhang: Who is this?

Investigator: Hello, hi. How are you, Dr. Zhang? Hi! I am from Shenyang. My surname is Zhao. I have a relative in your area, around Chengdu—I have never been there—He's doing business there, and he is suffering from renal failure.

Dr. Zhang: How come your number is...?

Investigator: Ah, I am using the internet, an internet phone, to make this call.

Dr. Zhang: Oh, you're calling using the internet.

Investigator: Right, right. Do you want to look at the medical records first, or shall we bring the patient, or what?

Dr. Zhang: Let the patient bring it (i.e. his medical file) with him.

Investigator: Ah, let the patient bring it with him. On which day can we find you then?

Dr. Zhang: I am here Monday through Friday.

Investigator: Monday through Friday, morning or afternoon?

Dr. Zhang: Either way.

Investigator: Oh, either way.

Dr. Zhang: If the patient comes, he needs to get to—you take note of the address.

Investigator: Address, go ahead please.

Dr. Zhang: Chongqing Medical University

Investigator: Chongqing Medical University

Dr. Zhang: the Second Affiliated Hospital

Investigator: the Second Affiliated Hospital, ah.

Dr. Zhang: Jiangnan Division

Investigator: Jiangnan Division

Dr. Zhang: Urology and Nephrology Center

Investigator: Ah, Urology, and what center?

Dr. Zhang: And Nephrology Center

Investigator: Urology and Nephrology Center, and we'll just ask for you, okay?

Dr. Zhang: Ask for me, or ask for doctors under me. We all have doctors to receive him. Rest assured.

Investigator: Oh, oh, okay, that's good. Just mentioning your name will work?

Dr. Zhang: Yeah.

Investigator: Alright then. I have a question, Dr. Zhang, that is, according to your experience, in the fastest case, is it possible to get the transplant done within a month, any possibility?

Dr. Zhang: If he is suitable for the surgery, we will try to find ways for him.

Investigator: There's another thing, that is, about the price, how much is it? For this kidney transplant, from beginning to end, how much does it cost? How much does the kidney cost? Can you give me a price, approximately?

Dr. Zhang: Well, that varies from place to place.

Investigator: Yes. If you do it, if you perform the operation yourself, how much is this kidney?

Dr. Zhang: Well, we'll do an examination first. After the examination, we will talk about it, okay?

Investigator: Oh. So we just want to have a rough idea, that's it. Okay.

Dr. Zhang: No need to prepare too much money for now. You come for the examination first, okay?

Investigator: It's the kidney transplant that needs some money, right?

Dr. Zhang: Yes, correct.

Investigator: Then regarding getting admitted into the hospital and getting a bed and whatnot, if possible, the bed and the rest can all be arranged right away?

Dr. Zhang: There are beds available here at the inpatient service. We have beds available.

Investigator: Okay then. We will ask for you directly then. Hopefully you will perform the surgery yourself, Dr. Zhang?

Dr. Zhang: Ah. All right.

Investigator: Okay. That's good. Thank you. Goodbye!
