Subject(s): Nurse, Kidney Transplant Inpatient Service, the First Affiliated Hospital, Zhengzhou University

Summary

1. Some (patients) can find matching donors in a very short time frame.
2. Investigator: How many can you do per year? 200 to 300 operations per year?
Nurse: Ah, more than that for sure!
3. Our beds are in short supply.
4. Investigator: So you have many teams. You can evaluate the patient at any time, whenever we come?
Nurse: Yes, yes, yes.

Translation

Nurse: Hello?

Investigator: Hello, greetings! Is this the Kidney Transplant Inpatient Services Unit of the First Affiliated Hospital of Zhengzhou University?

Nurse: Yes.

Investigator: Ah. Greetings. I want to consult you on something. I am from Shenyang. I have a relative doing business in Henan. He suffers from renal failure and is already hospitalized. The hospital recommends kidney transplantation to him. I want to ask, at your hospital, how long is the wait time, if things go smoothly?

Nurse: I am not sure I can tell you how long the wait time is.

Investigator: Ah, for example, one month, is that possible? For example, can it be done in a month or half a month?

Nurse: Some can find matching donors in a very short time frame. But we cannot definitively tell you that you will find a matching donor quickly.

Investigator: Oh, that's fine.

Nurse: You can register your lab test results and tissue typing data with us. If we find a kidney source, we will notify you.

Investigator: So it won't be too long, right?

Nurse: Let me tell you that I cannot guarantee this.

Investigator: Ah, that is fine. In Henan, in comparison with (other hospitals), your hospital is the best, right?

Nurse: Ah, yes. We do quite a lot.

Investigator: So how many can you do in a year, with no technical problems?

Nurse: That is correct.

Investigator: How many can you do per year? 200 to 300 operations per year?

Nurse: Ah, more than that for sure!

Investigator: Then 400 to 500 cases?

Nurse: Regarding this number, you don't need to ...

Investigator: Skills, skills come from quantity. If you are experienced, we all know that (in surgeries) people's lives are at stake.

Nurse: If you trust our skills, you...

Investigator: That is, if the patient gets hospitalized, if the hospital decides to admit him, don't we have to wait for a ward bed, an extra bed? Are the beds in short supply?

Nurse: Our beds are in short supply. Let's see if you(r patient) needs to be hospitalized, if you have certain lab results.

Investigator: In your hospital, which doctor performs the best surgeries? At the director level?

Nurse: Every doctor is good.

Investigator: How many teams do you have? Which team should I ask for?

Nurse: When you come, please get registered first. After registration, you can ask our doctors specific questions. Okay?

Investigator: Okay. So on which day of the week should I come?

Nurse: It's up to you. Every day is fine, except Sundays.

Investigator: Except Sundays. So you have many teams. You can evaluate the patient at any time, whenever we come?

Nurse: Yes, yes, yes.

Investigator: Ah, sure. Thank you!

Nurse: Hmm.

Investigator: Thank you, bye!
