Translation

Nurse: Hello! Urology.

Investigator: Hi, greetings! Is this the inpatient service unit of the Urological Surgery at Shenzhen Hospital of Southern Medical University?

Nurse: Yes.

Investigator: I hope to send my relative to this hospital for a kidney transplant.

Nurse: Please make an appointment with Zheng Qingyou at the outpatient clinic.

Investigator: Uh, to make an appointment with Zheng Qingyou at the clinic? So he is the chief surgeon for kidney transplants here? He does it himself?

Nurse: Yes, yes, yes.

Investigator: Uh, then Director Zheng has done it for many years? How are his skills? Is he very experienced?

Nurse: Yes, he came from Beijing. (Investigator: Oh?) In the area of kidney transplantation, he is quite...I mean he is experienced.

Investigator: Oh, he came from Beijing. I know quite a lot of cases have been done in Beijing.

Nurse: He usually comes to the clinic on Mondays.

Investigator: So, that Director Zheng, as you said, got relocated from Beijing. So, which hospital did he work with in Beijing? Did his whole team move over? Or just he came over by himself?

Nurse: Ah, he came by himself.

Investigator: Oh, he did by himself. How long has it been since he moved here? Many years?

Nurse: Over a year.

Investigator: Uh, over a year. So over more than a year, he has not done many operations? I think the skills in this hospital...our hospital started kidney transplantation since Director Zheng came over?

Nurse: Yes.

Investigator: Oh, then there shouldn't be many cases performed. In your inpatient service unit, are there many patients for kidney transplants?

Nurse: Not many.

Investigator: Not many. Then are you familiar with the skills? Regarding the skills, he did it for many years in Beijing?

Nurse: Yes, he did it for many years in Beijing.

Investigator: There's a doctor called Director Quan (Nurse: En) at your hospital. Is he still around? Does he do the operations?

Nurse: He is here, and till does them.

Investigator: Director Quan also does the operations, right? He also does kidney transplants, right?

Nurse: Right. After all, that's a large operation. The whole team must work on it. It cannot be done by just one or two people.

Investigator: Ah. Director Quan is the same one as Quan Weihe, right?

Nurse: Yes.

Investigator: Ah, he is still around. Good.

Nurse: Yes.

Nurse: Oh, oh. By then, usually, the Director is at the inpatient rounds Monday through Friday, at the morning shift change, or available at the inpatient service in the afternoon around 5 o'clock.

Investigator: I will discuss with my family members. We will think about it. Thank you.
Okay,
goodbye, goodbye!

Nurse: Okay, okay, okay!
