Translation:

Nurse: Hello, Hepatobiliary Surgery!

Investigator: Oh, hi. Is this Chinese People's Liberation Army Guangzhou General

Hospital?

Nurse: Hi...Who is this?

Investigator: Ah, this is the situation. Well, I have a question: can you still do liver transplants at your hospital now?

Nurse: How can I help you?

Investigator: As for liver transplants, can you still do them? Can we go there and wait for a liver transplant?

Nurse: Do you have any concerns? You can come and see a doctor at the clinic. You can come to visit the liver transplant clinic.

Investigator: Ah, so we can go visit there. As we are in Zhuhai now, we want to find a hospital to get it done. My neighbor recommended that we go to an army hospital....

Nurse: Please come see a doctor at the clinic first, come visit the clinic first.

Investigator: Oh, make an appointment for the clinic.

Nurse: Please tell one of the doctors that you need...Let the doctor take a look at your case first. Okay!

Investigator: Which doctor shall I look for?

Nurse: Well, any doctor here will do.

Investigator: Oh, well, I'd like to go to the best chief physician there.

Nurse: If you'd like, we have appointments with our experts open from Monday to Wednesday afternoon.

Investigator: For such an appointment, which chief physician to pick?

Nurse: From Monday to Wednesday afternoon.

Investigator: From Monday to Wednesday. Well, as for the operations, isn't it your director who does them as the lead surgeon? What is his name? I will directly register for his appointment. Is that better? Who is that, and what is his name?

Nurse: Oh, that's Chen Jianxiong.

Investigator: Chen Jianxiong...Monday...is he your director?

Nurse: Yeah, yes.

Investigator: Oh, he is. Well, I'd like to ask, that is, we...

Nurse: Yeah....

Investigator: Oh, as you know, have you still, still been doing liver transplants recently?

Nurse: Didn't I answer that question for you? We've still been doing them.

Investigator: Oh, well, well, can you tell me how much money I need to prepare, if it is done at your hospital?

Nurse: If you'd like to consult about the cost, please call the office.

Investigator: What is the number for the doctors' office?

Nurse: You change the last digit from 6 to 5.

Investigator: Oh, that's for the doctors' office. Will there be somebody there?

Nurse: Yes, there is.

Investigator: Oh, good. Well, I will call and ask them. Good, thank you!

Nurse: You're welcome.

Investigator: Thank you!
