World Organization to Investigate the Persecution of Falun Gong

Lu Wei, deputy director of Transplant Department at Second Artillery General Hospital: We still do it, we used to have Falun Gong (practitioner) donors.

Date: November 1, 2014

Phone: 0118618910883818

Lu Wei: Who is this?

Investigator: Hello, director. So I have a relative suffering from hepatic failure. Does your hospital do liver transplants?

Lu Wei: Yes, he has to wait in line. We do it.

Investigator: How much is it?

Lu Wei: About 700,000 to 800,000 yuan [about US $111,982 to $127,979]

Investigator: So how is your technique? How many cases do you perform per year?

Lu Wei: Our technique is proven. We did 16 cases last year.

Investigator:...You guys did a lot in 2004.

Lu Wei: Yes, that was the peak time.

Investigator: So we have to wait. Why did you go from doing so many cases a year to so little?

Lu Wei: So now we have an issue with the donors...

Investigator: I heard many of the death row inmates were Falun Gong practitioners, and their organs were harvested live, is that true?

Lu Wei: That was a long time ago, it's no longer taking place.

Investigator: Oh, so it took place before.
