Investigator: Hey! Hello!

Nurse: Hello?

Investigator: Is this the Wuhan General Hospital of the Guangzhou Military Region? Hello?

Nurse: Hmm~.

Investigator: Ah, this...

Nurse: Hello?

Investigator: Kidney Transplantation. I asked a friend in China to call you a couple of days ago, he said that you could do it here, so he told me about it, and after he told me...

Nurse: Right.

Investigator: I am calling again to confirm it further. Last time my friend said that you do a lot. Sometimes you do ten cases a month, or sometimes you do twelve cases. Are...are you doing a lot now?

Nurse: Yes.

Investigator: Oh, that is to say...

Nurse: Yes.

Investigator: Oh, it's like this year...because I care most about if you do a lot... for sure I hope that my turn will come quickly in the line up; it's just like shopping. Did you do a lot this year? Like this kidney transplant?

Nurse: Ah, it can be done if matching happens!

Investigator: Oh, that is, have you done a lot? I mean this year, and now is almost the end of the year?

Nurse: A lot for sure!

Investigator: About the kidney transplantation, how many...can you do several hundred a year?

Nurse: A lot for sure.

Investigator: Ah?

Nurse: A lot, a lot.

Investigator: Ah, I am asking...

Nurse: We do a lot, a lot, a lot! We are definitely doing a lot.

Nurse: I don't know about this!

Investigator: Oh, so shall I contact Tang... Director Tang, or Director Xie?

Nurse: Both will do, both will do.

Investigation: Oh, they all, uh, are they the only ones who do the surgery? The two directors are both doing it, right?

Nurse: Yes, yes, yes, yes!

Investigator: Oh, then, I think...well, if...you say that, well, you can do about ten cases, ten to twelve cases a month, so that's still quite a lot, right?

Investigator: Alright, that's it, thank you, okay, goodbye!

Nurse: Ah.

Investigator: Goodbye!

Nurse: Bye.
