Male doctor: Hello!

Male Doctor: Yes, yes.

Investigator: ...Director Zhao Hongchuan, right?

Male doctor: No, Director Zhao Hongchuan is performing a surgery, Director Zhao Hongchuan is performing a surgery, and he is not available now.

Investigator: This is what...

Male doctor: I am a doctor who' s on duty for the first time today. How can I help you?

Investigator: I' d like to know whether your hospital can perform liver transplantation.

Male doctor: It can be done here, but...if you don' t mind, you should first ask the patient to come to the hospital ward at 8 o' clock in the morning any day, and come to for consultation. Director Zhao is there every day, or you can go to Director Zhao, or Huang Director Fan' s outpatient clinics for consultation for this matter.

Investigator: Ah, if the assessment, the examination and assessment, show a surgery can be performed, if it can be done, usually how long will the patient have to wait...

Male doctor: He still has to wait, has to wait for the liver source. There are relatively more liver sources now, and the liver sources are gradually increasing anyway. But, if you don' t register first, how are you going to line up, right? If you want a specific consultation, I still suggest that you ask the patients to come to the outpatient clinics of Director Zhao Hongchuan and Director Huang Fan, and Director Geng' s is fine too.
