Appendix 39

Investigation Recording 39, “I think you are well aware of that, so we don’t have to spell it out.”

Phone Investigation Recording

Investigator: Hello, Dr. Zeng.

Zeng Wen: Hello, who is that?

Investigator: I got your phone number from a friend. May I ask you some questions about heart transplantation?

Zeng Wen: Ok, go ahead.

Investigator: Do you still perform heart transplant surgeries, if a patient comes to your hospital?

Zeng Wen: Yes, I still do them.

Investigator: You still do them. What the patient’s family cares about the most is the success of the surgery. So I want to ask you, besides the patient’s physical conditions and his family (support), is the organ donor also a very important element?

Zeng Wen: That’s right.

Investigator: If his family members come (to accompany him) to do the transplant, is it possible to learn more about the health condition of the donor?

Zeng Wen: They (i.e. the donors) are all healthy. We screen all donors prior to the surgeries.

Investigator: Oh, you do screenings. So there should also be indicators. Are there more details such as numbers, a detailed report with indicators? Is it possible for us to see that?

Zeng Wen: There won’t be any report.

Investigator: There will be?

Zeng Wen: There won’t be.

Investigator: There won’t be. Oh, then...

Zeng Wen: I think you also know where most of the donors come from. I think you are well aware of that, so we don’t have to spell it out. So, it’s impossible to have such details.

Investigator: I know, I’ve asked about it, because I also have family members working in the court (system), that is, many donors are...

Zeng Wen: Ah, ah...

Investigator: From prisons, right? They are Falun Gong (practitioner) donors... In that case, can you guarantee to find such an organ for us?

Zeng Wen: Oh, I can't talk anymore, bye.
